LEGISLATIVE TOWN HALL MEETING SCHEDULED FOR TIPPECANOE COUNTY

INDIANAPOLIS—State Reps. Sheila Klinker (D-Lafayette) and Joe Micon (D-West Lafayette) announced they will host a town hall meeting on the Ivy Tech campus Nov. 1 to discuss legislative topics, including property taxes and education issues.

State Rep. F. Dale Grubb (D-Covington), the Indiana House of Representatives Democratic caucus chair, will join them. The Tuesday, Nov. 1 meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in the Ivy Hall Building inside Lilly Meeting Rooms 1114 and 1120. The building is located at 3101 South Creasy Lane, off Highway 52, in Lafayette.

"There are many issues of great importance that will confront the General Assembly when we reconvene in January," said Klinker. "I hope my constituents will take the opportunity to attend this town meeting and share their thoughts. It is critically important that we hear from our local residents before the session begins in order to better represent their best interests."

Rep. Micon added, "If legislators are to represent area residents to the best of our abilities, then we need to hear from those residents. The town hall meeting will be a great opportunity to learn what is on the minds of citizens in the Lafayette-West Lafayette area as well as from Warren County. I urge as many people as possible to attend."

Klinker and Micon said anyone living in Tippecanoe County or nearby communities are invited to attend.
